

America's and Texas' Story of Transformation in Education Now, Moms and Dads are fighting for the 22nd Century ~ Our kids' future and the future of America!

2013 Texas Passes HB2103

Opened Texas students, parents, and teachers up to possible data mining by third party entities.

Set up cooperating agencies

Texas Education Agency (TEA), Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB), and Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) will share

Three centers for education research (CER's) to do research using the data from the TEA, THECB, and TWC that goes back at least 20 years. The data will be known as the P-20/Workforce Data Repository operated by the Higher Education Coordinating Board.

2013 Texas Legislators Pass HB5 (Workforce Development) law. Both Republicans and Democrats overwhelmingly pass HB5. The Workforce Development (HB5), just like the Common Core National Standards, expands the target from K-12 (Kindergarten through 12th grade) to a P-20 (Pre-school through College, Trade or Graduate School) system in order to control the economy and control our children by funneling them into certain career pathways. 2013

U.S. Congress overwhelmingly passed the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).

Wrapping of K-12 education into a workforce development system binding all students.

Nominally led by the states, this emphasis goes to regulations pushed by both the federal Department of Labor and Education. In this WIOA document, take special note

of page 6; "it is important to review state legislation and identify areas that may conflict with WIOA to develop plans and strategies that resolve these conflicts.
